

Lidia Aymé Jara Munar is a well-qualified and licensed lawyer in Peru; with experience in the Human Rights field. Motivated, hardworking and reliable. Fluent in Spanish, English and good knowledge of French, Italian and Portuguese. Areas of interest include Business, Human Rights and International law.

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Counseling of individuals, nonprofit organizations and enterprises:
 - Monitored and promoted lawsuits in different disciplines (civil, criminal, administrative and labor).
 - Participated in judicial processes and administrative procedures as a lawyer.
 - Managed and coordinated actions before the national police, ministries, municipalities and regulatory agencies.
 - Elaborated and reviewed contracts and legal briefs.
 - Solved user complaints and conducted negotiations.
- Counseling and legal aid at the Children and Adolescents Defense Office “Raquel Guerra Távara” users (Lima Bar);
 - Trained and managed a team of volunteers at the Defense Office and Human Rights Direction;
 - Performed human resources functions such as performance appraisals;
 - Was responsible for scheduling negotiations and solving conflicts in family law;
 - Enhanced productivity by organizing and speeding up processes;
- Promotion and organization of academic events related to Human Rights, International Law and Family Law at the Lima Bar Association.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Legal reporting and academic research skills;
- Ability to understand, interact and develop empathy with different groups of people;
- Strong work ethics and superior interpersonal skills;
- Ability to teach, communicate and apply negotiation techniques in different settings.

WORK HISTORY

2012-now English Teacher at Idiomas Católica – Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú.

2011-2012 English Teacher at ICPNA

2011 Lawyer at Cano, Paredes & Espejo Abogados S.A.C Law Office.

2008-2010 Legal Assistant at the Human Rights Direction and Lawyer at the Children and Adolescent Defense Office at the Lima Bar Association.

2005 Assistant to Carolina Loayza Tamayo; Human Rights, International Law, International Humanitarian Law and International Criminal Law expert.

EDUCATION

2011-2014 University of Lima. Master Degree at Business Law. Complete program.

1999-2004 University of Lima, Law Degree. Lawyer.

RESEARCH

2008 Dissertation Thesis "Criminal Analysis of State Terrorism".

2015 Business and Human Rights in Peru. (In process)

LANGUAGES

Spanish. Native.

1996 - 1998 English, Advanced Level. ICPNA.

2000 - 2003 French, Advanced Level. Alianza Francesa de Lima.

2003 - 2005 Italian, Intermediate Level. University of Lima.

2014 Portuguese, Basic Level. Idiomas Católica – PUCP.